Should any carrier fail to deliver the Democrat promptly, word left at the office will notify the neglect.

Yearly advertisers will please hand in their orders as early as they conveniently can, during the day.

PRESIDENT WAYLAND. The Providence Journal says that Dr. Wayland has resigned the presidency of Brown University. The resignation takes place immediately after the ensuing commencement.

We published a very large extra edition of our morning Democrat, but it has been exhausted before 8 o'clock. We were compelled to issue a second edition of our evening paper before we had a sufficient supply for the great demand.

A German Protestant was shot on Tenth street, between Market and Jefferson, Monday last, while riding peacefully along the street. This occurred after the firing and shooting on Chapel, Main and Market streets.

Fare Reduced to Chicago.

The New Albany and Salem Railway has reduced the fare, and is now carrying passengers through to Chicago for SEVEN DOLLARS.

Here is a chance for all who wish to visit that flourishing city.

Another. On Monday night a party of two or three were busy engaged in hunting with the butts of their muskets through a corn field near Armistead's brewery, in the expectation of stumbling over some unfortunate Germans who were said to have hidden themselves there. None were found, however. This statement we have from a native whose veracity is undoubted.

COMPLAINTS. Complaints have been made to us of the gutters on Main street, above Preston. The sidewalks have lately been re-paved, and the broken bricks, sand, etc., has been left lying in the gutters.

The gutters on Jackson street, from Market to Washington, are filled with stagnant water mixed with mud and filth, till the only wonder is, that the neighborhood is not visited with a pestilence.

Dennis Jordan, who was killed by the lawless mob on Monday, and who died yesterday from wounds inflicted then, was a quiet, peaceable citizen, and for a long time a faithful porter in the store of Mayor John Barbee. His only crime was that he was an Irishman. His only motive was that John Barbee and his party could, perhaps, if they had conferred with the other party and appointed a committee as suggested, to prevent violence on election day.

Mrs. E. Oakes Smith, writes to the N. Y. Tribune, of two young ladies who have commenced the practice of law, one at Lowell, Mass., and one at Philadelphia, and another who has chosen this profession, and is preparing for it.

We suspect either of them would succeed much better as nurses. Cannot some hopeful limbs of the law set them at it?

We have the gratification of knowing, that on yesterday very many different members of the Know-Nothing party, in different portions of the city and at different times, stated that the Democrats' account of the riots on Monday was the most impartial and most nearly correct of all the statements given. It is our object to publish the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so far as it can be obtained, and such has always been, and always will be our course. The people will find out before long that the Democrat is the reliable paper of Louisville.

ANOTHER CASE. We were yesterday informed that an Irishman, whose name we have forgotten, was chased on Monday from Main street across the creek, and jumping over a fence himself in a yard. His pursuers followed him, caught and bruised him badly, and were about to hang him—tied him to the post on the street bridge with the intention of drowning him, but changed their purpose—held him suspended by the heels outside of the bridge over the water—then took him to the water's edge, and holding on to him, plunged him into the creek several times, head first. When at last rescued from the mob, he was well-nigh dead, and appeared to be nothing but one mass of mud and filth.

New Firm.

Messrs. T. A. Read, Wm. J. Anderson, and E. T. H. Anderson have formed an association for the manufacture of a general Hat, Cap, and Straw Goods business.

Mr. Read was formerly of the firm of A. B. Vandewinkle & Co.; and Mr. Anderson of Anderson, McLane & Co.—gentlemen well known in Louisville. They will occupy the large and beautiful house on the northeast corner of Fifth and Main streets.

The attention of country merchants especially is invited to this house. We bespeak for them a full trade, as we are sure they will have such a stock as will command and deserve it.

DESOLATION. The neighborhoods where the fires and riots of Monday occurred are being fast deserted, especially by foreign-born citizens. They are also leaving other localities in considerable numbers. They are leaving the city in such consequences as they can procure. The houses on Fifth, between Main and Water street, and on Water, from Fifth to the head of the canal, we expect to see entirely emptied before the week closes.

The only prospect before us now is, that the value of all the property in the city will be lessened at least 25 per cent. It has already fallen considerably. There is no one willing to invest at any price at this time. Desolation reigns where, two days ago, all was life.

DEATHS AT BLOOMINGTON AND SHELBYVILLE, IND. The Shelbyville Banner, of Friday, says that for the previous three weeks, between thirty and forty had died of cholera there. The victims were mostly among the Irish laborers upon the Terre Haute and Alton Railroad. Several old citizens had died, however, and among them Mr. Charles T. Thornton, a brother of General Thornton.

The Panograph of the 28th ult. says:—We have heard of five deaths in the city and two in the country, occurring suddenly, and said to be due to cholera, within the last two or three days. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Rowan, residing on Centre street.

A NARROW ESCAPE. During the riot on Monday, and while the mob were surrounding the burning houses of Quinn, on Main street, near Third, and were shooting the Irishman who was rescued from the flames, an Irishman, disguised as a woman, came out with an infant in his arms, and hid in passing through the crowd, when his wife, who was second door above Eleventh street, "threw him," "kill him." The policeman but a short distance, till he was overpowered and would undoubtedly have been killed, had the intervention of two or three gentlemen, who drove him away from the mob, which, by driving, he succeeded in doing, and lodged only within the walls of the jail, from where he can be summoned to answer any charge that may be preferred against him, or if innocent, to regain his freedom, to thank God for preserving him from a violent death at the hands of a lawless mob.

MANIMENSION OF NINE SLAVES.—F. W. Harris, of Louisville, Miss., appeared before Judge Parker yesterday morning, charged with the abduction of Adams county, Mississippi, and manumitted the following slaves: Nelly, aged twenty years; Mary, aged twenty years; Abigail, aged twenty years; William, aged twenty years; John, aged twenty years; and five others, all of whom were born in Kentucky.

They were the property of William H. Harris, who had been taken from his home in Kentucky, and carried off to Mississippi, where he was held in slavery until he came to this country, where he was freed by the act of Congress.

RIVER AND WEATHER.

REVER. The river was still falling last evening, with six feet nine inches water in the canal by the mark, a fall of one inch in the past twenty-four hours.

Yesterday was as pleasant as could be expected at this time of the year; the greatest heat being 89 degrees. During a greater part of the day, the skies were lowering, and the net in with a threat of rain.
